

THE LIQUEURS OF "L'EDEN"

"An old monastery, an abbot, custodian of ancient recipes, and a doctor full of passion and enthusiasm."

This is how a great and sincere friendship started up in Massa Lubrese a quarter of a century ago. Along with this friendship came the legend of the King of L'Eden and the delights of his garden, shared and offered with joy to his most well-loved friends.

The shirt, with the carling on the sleeve. Customized as the suit. Unique.

Soft, with the jacket without epaulets and the wholly handmade line of the rever, three botton but two usable, letting glimpsing the trouser, enriched by the pences wich make every figure much slenderer.

All this covered by fine cashemere that makes every overcot really chic. The tailor, in Naples, can accomplish all this for every customer. Wholly handmade.
